

Brighton in the Stone Age School Session Brighton Museum, 90 minutes, £4.50 per pupil

Be a historian uncovering the story of Brighton's ancient past in the tale of Whitehawk Hill and the ancient people who built and visited it. Handle 5000 year old artefacts, become a Stone Age trader and hear Sussex folklore stories under a starry sky just like your ancient ancestors did.

- Please let us know of any SEND needs of your class before your visit.
- Please ensure suitable adult supervision.

Aims of the session:

1. To enjoy your time with us
2. To feel a connection to our ancestors
3. To see similarities and difference between people across time and place
4. To find out how Stone Age people lived in Sussex
5. To understand changes in lifestyle from hunter-gathers and farmers, and to understand the way changes in lifestyle arrives with the Neolithic
