

Local History Walk with Martha Gunn, 90mins Brighton Museum, £4.50 per child

Come and listen to Martha's tales about Brighthelmstone as a fishing town, her life as a dipper and the arrival of our most famous resident - the King of England, George IV. Martha will show the class her collection of paintings and maps, before taking them on a 50 minutes walk around the Royal Pavilion Estate and the Lanes to find out more about the history of the town.

- In case of rain please ask your class to wear suitable footwear and coats
- Please ensure suitable adult supervision as we will be off site. Please note that teachers are responsible for their own risk assessments.

Aims of the session

1. Enjoy your time with us
2. Ask and answer questions to find out about the past
3. Make links with people in the past
4. Recognise how buildings and features in their local area have changed over time
5. Understand some of the main events and people linked to their city
6. Get some fresh air and exercise

History Curriculum Links

- a study over time tracing how several aspects of national history are reflected in the locality (this can go beyond 1066)
- a study of an aspect of history or a site dating from a period beyond 1066 that is significant in the locality
- significant historical events, people and places in their own locality

Cross Curriculum Links • Literacy • Numeracy • Drama • DT • Science • Geography